PEACE IN THE PARK

At Chester Bowl, we believe that everyone has the right to participate in our programs in a safe, peaceful, caring environment where each person is respected. We believe in resolving conflicts without yelling or fighting and being a place where everyone can feel comfortable and safe. We believe that each participant has a personal responsibility to do everything they can to create this environment at Chester Bowl. We expect the people in our programs to welcome each other, watch out for each other, and demonstrate caring towards each other.

At Chester Bowl we do not allow abuse or harassment of any kind, including verbal abuse (name calling, inappropriate language); physical harassment or fighting; harassment or teasing based on religion, race, color, national origin, gender, age, ability, sexual orientation, or any other protected class; sexual harassment; or demonstration of lack of respect for another person.

Consequences for violating the principles of Peace in the Parks can include warnings, loss of program privileges (being able to participate in winter and/or summer activities) for part or all of the day, involvement of parents/guardians, and loss of privileges for longer periods of time including the entire season.

AGREEMENT: By signing this form we promise that we will follow the Peace in the Park guidelines and understand the consequences that will occur if we do not.

VOLUNTEER COMMITMENT

Volunteers make the Chester Bowl Winter Program successful. Your cooperation is needed to keep it this way! It is critical you follow through with your commitment.

1. When you sign up to volunteer for a specific time slot and/or activity- such as working the concession stand, serving as a race gatekeeper, etc.- you are responsible to fulfill that commitment. If you are unable to do so, you must find your own replacement. A list of volunteers will be posted on our website, chesterbowl.org.
2. Two people from the same household should not sign up to work the same time slots during the same activity. For example, a husband and wife signing up to work the concession stand together. Too many times in the past we've had double cancellations and we've had to scramble to have an adult present.
3. Remember to record your volunteer hours! The file box holding each family's volunteer card is located on the counter behind the concession stand.
4. Families who complete volunteer hours will be drawn first at the next years lottery.

I understand and agree to the above guidelines.
